

File name

barragan_capuchin_convent_chapel_03_cmyk.jpg

Image source

<https://www.barragan-foundation.org/archive/media-kit>

Colour space / Image size

CMYK / 17×22 cm at 300dpi

Caption

Luis Barragán (1902–1988), Capuchin Convent Chapel, Tlalpan, Mexico City, 1954–1963. Transept window designed by Mathias Goeritz (undated photograph, 1960s).

Photographer

Armando Salas Portugal

Copyright

© Barragan Foundation, Switzerland / ProLitteris, Zurich

The copyright for this image lies with the Barragan Foundation, Switzerland. The image may be used for the purposes specified in the copyright and FAQ sections of the Barragan Foundation website, following proper rights clearance via the Swiss Copyright Society ProLitteris, or one of its associated sister societies abroad.

Under no circumstances may this image be used in connection with commercial activities.

If not otherwise indicated by ProLitteris or one of its associated sister societies, the following credit must accompany the image:

© Barragan Foundation, Switzerland / ProLitteris, Zurich

Copyright clearance contacts:

ProLitteris: www.prolitteris.ch / art@prolitteris.ch

Associated sister societies worldwide: www.prolitteris.ch/kuenstlerverzeichnis/

Barragan Foundation: www.barragan-foundation.org / info@barragan-foundation.org